Edward King, Bethel, Maine.

The first contribution paid to the treasurer of the Soldiers' Monument Association came from Judge Stearns of Bangor. The judge gave the Memorial address before Brown Post without any compensation, and after returning home wrote Adjutant Barrows that his visit to Bethel had given him so much pleasure that he felt greatly indebted to the Post and people of Bethel for the kind reception and many favors shown him while in town, and as a mark of his appreciation and gratitude for such favors he enclosed his check which is to be applied to the soldiers' monument fund.

did in a few well chosen words.

An innovation in the exercises this year was the singing of the class ode by only one member of the class. The ode was written by Miss Florence H. Merrier and sung by her as a solo. This was a pleasing change as Miss Merrier has a very pure, sweet voice, particularly adapted to solo work.

Mr. Hanson conferred the diplomas, and in his talk to the graduates gave them some very beautiful and helpful thoughts which will be an inspiration to them in their future lives.

Rev. C. N. Gleason of the Congregational church pronounced the benediction and the graduating class was then marshalled from the hall.

The music was furnished by Payne and Plummer's orchestra of Lewiston. At the first strains of music the school was marshalled in by Forest Keene. The invocation was by Rev. F. B. Schoonover of the M. E. church.

CLASS ODE.

(By Florence H. Merrier)

We have climbed the hill together, More beyond has brightly shown; May it ever gleam before us, Still lead on to heights unknown.

Chorus:

More beyond, our constant watchword, Will be with us from this day; More beyond, it's dear Gould's message, Resounding clear, along our way.

All the years that we have spent here, Ours and care-free though they've seemed, Have led ever onward, upward, To fair worlds of which we've dreamed.

Chorus:

We would choose the climbing path ways, Struggle on to reach life's high goals; We would win the glorious gardens, That await victorious souls.

Chorus:

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 1907.

That an air ship or a flock of them may be seen any day in the near future soaring across the sky in Oxford county on the way to the lake regions is no dream. In Boston the other day an air ship man sailed from Revere Beach to Boston, landed at the Hotel Adams and delivered a message to the governor, then sailed back again. He came near being drowned by his motor failing to work, but just consider the accidents of the motor and the fact that it is quite possible that the war air ships of the future will be able to drop bombs of explosives in the right places and eliminate wars altogether. Prof. Bell of telephone fame, who this week retired to his summer home declared that the problem of air navigation was solved. Send in your orders for air ships early and avoid the rush skyward!

CHILDREN'S DAY AT THE M. E. CHURCH.

Sunday, June 10th, was devoted to children's day at the M. E. church. In the morning the pastor, Rev. F. H. Thompson, preached to the children. The church decorations were very pretty indeed. The altar was heavily draped with evergreen and a large number of potted plants and flowers were tastefully arranged. In the evening at 7:15 o'clock the children gave a concert. The program, from the Bible, played a prominent part in the children's day. The children sang into the church from the vestry. The exercises were thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present. All of the children were well given, but special mention should be made of the fine recitation by little Miss Edith Capen, aged three years, and the other acts by little David Hennes, aged four years. The piano solo given with their accompaniment, Miss Edith Capen, was an addition to the concert which any church night well be proud of. The concert was in charge of Mrs. Dorrill and Mrs. Ames, to whose untiring energy and patience the success of the concert was due.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT THE UNIVERSALIST CHURCH.

Sunday was observed at the Universalist church as children's day. This was the fourth anniversary of the inception of the observance at the Universalist church in Maine. During the day, Rev. Dr. Leonard, who is now a professor in the Tufts University, held a service at the church. The day was especially observed by the Universalist church throughout the country. At the Bethel church Rev. Dr. Leonard had a service for the children which was given in the morning. The church was decorated with potted plants, and the children were given a special service. The exercises were thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present. All of the children were well given, but special mention should be made of the fine recitation by little Miss Edith Capen, aged three years, and the other acts by little David Hennes, aged four years. The piano solo given with their accompaniment, Miss Edith Capen, was an addition to the concert which any church night well be proud of. The concert was in charge of Mrs. Dorrill and Mrs. Ames, to whose untiring energy and patience the success of the concert was due.

As a second time of the year, we published a list of the names of the children who were present at the children's day. The list was published in the Bethel News. The list was published in the Bethel News. The list was published in the Bethel News.

COMMENCEMENT CONCERT.

The commencement concert, as Thursday evening was given by the Ladies Male Quartette of Lewiston, assisted by Miss Maude Andrews of Augusta, reader; Mr. Frank Helling of Lewiston, violinist, and Miss Helen Johnson of Lewiston, accompanist. They were greeted by the largest audience that has attended a concert in Oxford Hall for years.

The Ladies Quartette have appeared in Bethel several times before, but not for the past two years and were gladly welcomed again. The Ladies Quartette of the Lewiston quartettes in the state and the quality and range of their voices are particularly adapted to blending, resulting in the well balanced and harmonious quartette which is sure to gain appreciation from any audience. That this was true last Thursday night was shown by the generous applause given each number.

Mr. Helling, violinist, is an established favorite with Bethel people, and was warmly welcomed upon his appearance. He has been studying abroad since his last appearance in Bethel and so came to us with new achievements. His wonderful attention upon the playing of instruments, the violin, was a part of the program fully enjoyed by the audience.

Miss Maude Andrews, reader, won immediate success with her first selection. Her pleasing, natural and attractive stage presence added much to her selection, which were rendered in a truly artistic manner. She graciously responded to numerous ovations.

Miss Helen Johnson of Lewiston, the accompanist for the evening, was perfectly at home at the piano and her accompaniments were such as those play who are born to the art, and not to it.

1. Vocal quartet, "I and Away, Gail," Miss Andrews.
2. Reading, "The Farmer's Story," Mr. Helling.
3. The "Song of the Farmer's Story," Mr. Helling.
4. "The Song of the Farmer's Story," Mr. Helling.

THE RECEPTION.

A large number of the relatives and friends of the graduates gathered at the reception on Friday evening. The graduates were assisted by Prof. Hennes, mother and friends. The other children acted as ushers. Payne and Thompson's orchestra played during the reception.

The exercises, which had been somewhat rearranged for the evening, were very pretty. In the center of the hall were an art square, some easy chairs, table and lamp which gave a most homelike effect. At either end of the hall were refreshment tables, where punch and fancy cakes, cookies, etc., were served.

The reception is one of the pleasantest events of commencement week, and it serves as a reminder of the graduates' school and former teachers of the Academy.

At about 9:30 o'clock the grand march was framed, following which was a song order of dances in which a large number participated. The exercises ended the formal exercises of one of the most pleasant and successful commencement weeks the Academy has ever known.

THE HEART CAN'T STAND RHEUMATIC ACID POISONING

To Free and Correct the Blood a Uric-O Treatment is Advised

There is great danger in those sharp, shooting pains through the chest around the region of the heart. It is a warning that poisons are in the blood and are there ready to spring and grip tightly the muscles controlling the heart's action. Don't neglect these warnings, they are the danger signals Nature flashes to you for help. Uric-O most neutralize and drive these dangerous poisons from the system, or sooner or later they will overtake you.

The only true way to cure Rheumatism is to get at it from the inside with Uric-O. It acts with marvellous swiftness upon the muscles, kidneys and blood. It cleans out the acid like deposits in the muscles, forces the kidneys to perform their duties for which they were designed and neutralizes the acid within the blood.

Your physician will admit that this is the only true way to cure Rheumatism permanently, and should know that Uric-O is the one remedy that will do it successfully and permanently. Uric-O is a liquid taken internally, a simple daily dose does not contain any morphine, opium or other so-called "pain killers." It is good for Rheumatism in any form. Sciatica, Neuritis, Inflammatory and Arterial Rheumatism all yield readily to Uric-O. Write the makers of the remedy and they can tell you of many wonderful cures that Uric-O has made right here in your own home town. It sells for 75c and $1.00 the bottle or you can obtain a trial bottle free by writing to The Bethel Drug Co., Bethel, N. Y. Per sale by W. E. Bonbraman, N. H. 12-19

The bride was very prettily decorated with pink carnations and ferns. The bride looked very pretty and happy in a white muslin gown elaborately trimmed with lace, carrying a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas.

After the ceremony the bride and groom were congratulated by the few friends invited to be present, and family refreshments were served. Some pretty and valuable presents were presented. Their home is to be in Los Angeles, near to the headquarters of their relatives and friends.

HERE'S YOUR WEATHER.

Cheer Up, Cherries Will Soon Be Ripe and Plenty.

Oxford county farmers who must by this time have fled their protests to the weather bureau at Washington should take cheer. Summer is coming. While the weather bureau cannot explain the reason why we up here are getting winter weather the other parts of the nation are worse off than Maine. Snow and freezing temperatures all along the line. Old man Grover of New Jersey who has been interesting the country with weather predictions hands out this which is as good and as reliable as any the government has made:

It will be cold up to July 10, then heating hot till after September 15. June 2 to 7—Moderately warm. June 8—Very heavy thunderstorms, followed by falling temperature. June 9 to 12—Coldest summer weather for many years in June, but too cloudy for frost, though almost cold enough for snow. June 13 to 15—Pleasant. June 16—Warm, showery. June 18 to 25—Pleasant. June 26—Warm and showery. June 27—Heavy thunder storms. June 28 to 30—Very cold for summer. July 1 to 5—Very cold for summer. July 6—Thunder storms. July 7 to 10—Very cool for that time of the year. July 11 and then through the summer—Very hot. All crops will be late.

AGRICULTURAL PROSPERITY

Signs multiply pointing to another year of agricultural prosperity. From every direction come reports that the harder grains and fruits are doing well, and in the winter wheat region the prospects are particularly cheering. The New York Tribune has made careful inquiry in the great grain-producing states, and announces that "the year's wheat crop will be a bumper one, despite reports of bugs and drought." That Kansas, the foremost wheat-growing state, has the largest winter wheat acreage ever planted, with the growing grain classified at 100, or perfect condition; that Iowa is planning for the greatest harvest ever gathered there; that in Nebraska the condition of winter wheat is 100, while Minnesota and South Dakota have some of the best yields, with increased acreage and plants in unusually fine condition. In some parts of the middle west there has been a slight falling off, and in Texas and Oklahoma some damage by bugs has been wrought, but the general outlook is most reassuring. And a big year for crops means steadiness and confidence in commercial circles.

NOTICE.

To the Stockholders of the Bethel Local Telephone & Telegraph Co.

Gentlemen: At the regular annual meeting of the stockholders there were but four persons present and thus no quorum, and no business transacted.

Now gentlemen, it is very important that we have a meeting and have every share of stock represented, as many important questions are coming up and in some manner must be met.

The experiment of the revenue from the toll receipts, keeping the line in repair and for improvements, has proved a fat failure, for as the other lines have been built the free exchange established between lines has cut down the receipts to next to nothing, and money must be raised to pay for the repairs of the last two years.

Now we have two ways in meeting this money raising question, one is that we charge other lines as toll upon our line is used as a trunk line between to other lines—like this—we have lines A, B and C, some one on A wants to talk to some one on C and line B is used as a trunk connection. This plan has been suggested but under the present arrangements would not bring in much revenue.

The other plan is for a toll to be assessed on each telephone on the line at say $1.00 per year, the money to be expended on repairs and improvements under the direction of the stockholders, and all not expended to be deposited as a sinking fund for future emergency. As the matter now stands it will not be long before we shall have no system and we will be bankrupt as a company.

At the general time the unpaid tolls amount to approximately $100, and have been accumulating for a period of some three years.

The annual meeting was adjourned to Saturday, June 15, 1907, at the office of H. H. Hastings in Bethel Village, and the above question will come up and shall be acted upon.

Very respectfully,
J. S. Hastings, Pres.
Bethel, Me., June 10, 1907.

THE ONE THING WE WERE CREATED TO DO.

I know young men who seem anxious to get on in their careers, but in a single evening they could be induced to give up their calling for something else. They are always wondering whether they are in the right place, or where their ability will count most.
They lose heart when they strike obstacles; or they get discouraged when they hear of (some one else who has made a success in some other line, and wonder if they had not better try something in the same line. If one is so loosely attached to his occupation that he can be easily induced to give it up, you may be sure that he is not in the right place. If nature has called you to a position, if the call runs in your blood, it is a part of your life and you can not get away from it.
It is not a separate thing from yourself.
It exists in every brain cell, every nerve cell; every blood corpuscle contains some of it. You can no more get away from it than a leopard can get away from his spots. So when a young man asks me if I do not think he had better make a change, I feel very certain that he is not in the place God called him to, for the thing he was made for is as much a part of his real being as his temperament. It is nearer to him than his heart-beat, closer than his breath. This is a photograph of the thing he was made for, in every cell in his body. He can not get away from it.

The thing which will make the life distinctive, which will make it a power is this one supreme thing which we want to do, and feel that we must do, and, no matter how long we may be delayed from it, or how far we may be averted from this one aim by mistakes or iron circumstance, we should never give up hope of a determination to pursue our object.

Some people have not the moral courage, the persistence, the force of character to get the things out of the way which stand between them and their ambition. They allow themselves to be pushed this way and that way into things for which they have no fitness or taste. Their will power is not strong enough to enable them to fight their way to their goal. They are pushed aside by the pressure about them, and do the things for which they have little or no liking or adaptation.

If there is anything in the world a person should fight for, it is freedom to pursue his ideal, because in that is his great opportunity for self-expression, for the unfolding of the greatest thing possible to him. It is his great chance to make his life tell in the largest, completest way, to do the most original, distinctive thing possible to him.

If he does not pursue his ideal, does not carry out his supreme aim, his life will be more or less of a failure, no matter how much he may be actuated by a sense of duty, or how much he may exert his will power to overcome his handicap.—Success.

A SUPREME AIM IN LIFE
MEANS SUCCESS.

There is great power in a resolution that has no reservation in it—a strong, persistent, tenacious purpose—which burns all bridges behind it and which clears all obstacles from its path and arrives at its goal, no matter how long it may take, no matter what the sacrifice or the cost.

The inspiration of a great positive aim transforms the life, revolutionizes a shiftless, aimless, dissipated, good-for-nothing man, as if some divine energy had worked in him, as love sometimes transforms a shiftless, slovenly, brutal, coarse, good-for-nothing man into a clearly, methodical, discreet being.

When the awakening power of a new purpose, a resolute aim, is born in a man, he is a new creature. He sees everything in a new light; the doubts, the fears, the apathy, the violence temptations which dogged his steps last yesterday, the stagnation which had blighted his past life, all vanish as if by magic. They are dispelled by the breath of a new purpose. His old and system take the place of unregistered and confusion. Order reigns in the place of anarchy. All his slumbering faculties awaken to activity. The effect of this new ambition is like the clarifying change made by a water way in a stagnant, swampy district.
The water cleanses as well as it begins to move, to do something, flowers spring up in place of poisonous weeds, and vegetation, beauty, ideas and song make for the pure, luminous atmosphere.—Success.

ingenious French Swindlers.
There are under arrest in Paris eight men who formed a society for winning accident-insurance companies.
All were insured in different companies and took turns at being knocked down and injured by carriages, carts and street cars. Two or three members of the society were always present, so that they might give evidence of the reality of the accident. The men have confessed that they each made $5,000 out of the companies during the last two years.

ANDOVER. SOUTH ARM.

Your correspondent has spent a delightful two weeks at South Arm for the fishing season; the first week with H. S. Boyd and the second with Freeman P. Leslie. The weather and water have been very poor this year, but notwithstanding these adverse conditions, a very enjoyable time was had.

Two weeks ago the water was at a very low pitch, and since then has risen 8 or 10 feet. The weather conditions have been very poor, cold, windy and either rain or snow almost every day, so that the spring season has been the poorest for years. The records for this season, so far as could be learned, were 51-2 pound trout caught by R. S. Boyd, 42-4 pound trout by a man from the Center, 43-4 pound trout by E. V. Noble, 4 pound trout by Will Anderson, 21-2 pound salmon by Homer Richards. There were quite a number of fishermen up from Andover, Frank McAllister being up twice; Oliver Merrill spent several days. Other fishermen were Clarence Newton, George Hutchins, Gerald Marston, Tim Hastings, Bert Edgerley, Eldon Pratt, Arthur Lang, Homer Richards, Will Anderson, N. F. Shurtliff, Alex Shurtliff, Herbert Morlon, Charlie Bell and David Rand. J. Lyman Ripley and Milton Cutting were also up for a day. It is very interesting to notice the difference in foliage between the lake and Andover. The buds are just starting while here they are at least three weeks further advanced.

Work is progressing nicely at Lone Mountain Lodge. A veranda has been built on three sides, built and the cook room put in good order.
